

Orientation for Higher Degree by Research Students (Doctoral and Masters)

Presented by the Graduate Research School

Thursday 24 February 2022, 8.45am – 12.35pm, Building 402 room 220

Or livestream at <https://echo360.net.au/section/f7e73cd1-a015-4892-a99c-2fc3748c737d/public>

8.45	Arrive, sign-in (join livestream from 8.55)
8.55	Welcome & Overview Professor Christopher Reid, Dean, Graduate Research School
10.00	Research Integrity, Ethics, Hazards and Safety (separate recording) Jennifer Hoffman, Manager, Research Integrity
10.15	Making the most of your research training experience Postgraduate Students Committee (PSC) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Jessica Frigger, PhD student Minerals, WASM Energy and Chemical Engineering; and VP – Research, PSC• Ayomide Ogundipe, Pharmacy and Biomedical Sciences• Hameed Mohammad, President PSC
10.35	Break – morning tea in the foyer
11.00	PELA (Post Entry English Language Assessment) Dominik Karski, Science and Engineering; Sarah Veitch, Business and Law; Paul Kebble, Health Sciences; Chantelle Leach, Humanities
11.15	Computational Skills Training for HDR students Kathryn Napier, Curtin Institute for Computation
11.30	Curtin Careers, Employment and Leadership Kathleen Franklyn, Careers and Employability
11.45	Library Support
11.45	• Faculty Librarian support (10 minutes) (separate recording) by Jenny Copestake, Science & Engineering
11.55	• Copyright and Thesis (15 Minutes) by John Brown, Library
12.10	• Academic Skills (10 minutes) by Petra Dumbell, Academic Skills Advisor, Library
12.20	• Research Data Planning and Management (15 minutes) by John Brown
12.35	Close

After the session the Powerpoint presentations and recording can be downloaded from the Postgraduate Orientation Resources webpage

<https://students.curtin.edu.au/essentials/orientation/bentley-orientation/hdr-students/>