Application Declaration

By putting in this request, I acknowledge that:

- A fee may be applied for rescinding credit transfer.
- If approved and then formally rescinded, I may not apply in the future for credit based on the same previous study for the same Curtin units.
- The rescinding of credit may affect my course progress due to the availability of units.
- The rescinding of credit will increase my duration of study in the course and hence increase course costs.
- The rescinding of credit will increase my duration of study in the course and my living expenses (International Students).
- The University cannot guarantee an extension of my visa that may be required due to the increased duration of study (International Students).
