

Cross Institutional Enrolment – Outbound Students

Application and Enrolment Guidelines

Definition

Cross Institutional Enrolment occurs when students already enrolled in an Australian institution wish to enrol in a subject/unit at another institution and have the study credited towards their degree.

An outbound student is a Curtin student undertaking units at an another institution. The institution at which the student wishes to enrol in order to have subjects/units credited towards their degree is referred to as the outbound institution.

Guidelines

In order to apply for Cross Institutional Enrolment at Curtin University you will be required to provide evidence that:

- Your educational qualifications meet Curtin entry requirements
- You are currently enrolled at Curtin University
- You have completed at least one full year of study (for undergraduates) or at least one semester of study (for postgraduates)

Please note: the maximum credit a cross institutional student will be permitted to undertake is 200 credits or one third of the course (whichever is less).

Procedures

- Check the availability of subjects/units at the outbound institution for the semester in which you wish to study. It is your responsibility to approach the institution for information concerning admission and enrolment procedures.
- Complete the application for Cross Institutional Enrolment.
- Provide all unit outlines for the proposed subjects/units to your Course Co-ordinator to evaluate equivalent Curtin credit. Your Course Co-ordinator must complete the Proposed Units of Study in Section 4 of the application and provide an authorising signature and allocate the equivalent credit points.
- Lodge your completed application form by the deadline to the Cross Institutional Enrolment Advisor via our enquiry form who will authorise your application.
- Ensure you provide the outbound institution with your authorisation and enrol by their appropriate deadlines.
- All fees must be paid to the outbound institution. If you are a Commonwealth Supported student you will need to complete a Commonwealth Assistance Form with the outbound institution where a debt will be incurred for the subjects/units undertaken.
- On confirmation of your enrolment with the outbound institution you must submit your Enrolment Advice via the enquiry form before the census date; refer to website <http://students.curtin.edu.au/administration/dates/census.cfm>
- You will receive an enrolment advice from Curtin confirming your enrolment. Please check your enrolment thoroughly and advise Curtin of any discrepancies.
- If you withdraw from any units of study at the outbound institution you must also contact the Cross Institutional Enrolment Advisor via the enquiry form before the census date to withdraw from generic units at Curtin.
- Not all outbound institutions provide Curtin with student results; therefore, when you receive your results you must email an original or certified copy to the Cross Institutional Enrolment Advisor using the enquiry form.

Fees information: HECS-Help / Fee-Help

An Australian Citizen/Permanent Resident whose course is not Commonwealth funded cannot apply to enrol on a cross institutional basis in undergraduate units at Curtin University. Only students who have maintained an enrolment during the previous academic year will be eligible to enrol in cross institutional studies, and receive Commonwealth support.

Undergraduate students will need to complete the appropriate Request for Commonwealth Support application form at Curtin University and outbound institutions. Enrolment cannot proceed without the submission of the appropriate form.

Postgraduate students undertaking cross institutional studies are eligible to apply for FEE-HELP. Students will need to complete a FEE-HELP application form at Curtin University and outbound institutions prior to the census date.

- OASIS is Curtin’s student portal. Through OASIS, students are provided with access to their student record (eStudent), the Official Communications Channel (OCC), and a range of other online services including a student email account and learning support systems.
- It is a condition of enrolment at Curtin that students activate their OASIS account and access OASIS at least once a week to receive official communications from the University via the OCC.
- Students may be granted exemption from the requirement to access OASIS in exceptional circumstances only. Please check www.oasis.curtin.edu.au for more information.

Guild Membership

Under the Curtin University of Technology Act, all students automatically become members of the Student Guild on enrolment. In order for the Guild to provide services to you whilst you are a member, your name, student ID number, preferred contact address, home phone number, email addresses, gender, year of birth, course of study, campus location and other basic enrolment details will be made available to the Guild. These details will remain confidential. You may elect to opt out of Guild membership at any time via the Guild Membership Status Channel in OASIS (under the Campus Life & Guild tab). If you opt out of Guild membership, the Guild will no longer have access to your details and you will cease to be eligible for membership benefits.
